The Ball Games.

Jasper lost three games during the Fair. They were well played games and added much to the daily programs.

Hannatown won the first game 7 to 1 until the ninth when the Jasper pitcher weakened and the visitors score 5. The Jasper battery was Perry and Harry Tallman.

Nashville won the second game at the score of 9-11. The Jasper battery was McGown, Hardaway and Campbell.

The last game was with the Carthage Tigers and was anybody's game all the way until the ninth, the final score being 8 to 5. Turpin pitched for Jasper and Campbell caught. Turpin struck out 15 men.

In Appreciation.

I wish in this public way to express my appreciation of the harmonious and cooperative spirit that prevailed among the officers, department superintendents and committeemen throughout the preliminary work of the Fair and during the Fair, and I would also include all who contributed to the exhibits or financially. This kind of cooperation insures the success of any enterprise and brings its reward in extending the prestige of our community and in the development of our resources.

C. O. Wine,
President of Fair Committee.

George Huntley Visits Jasper.

George Huntley and wife of Commerce, Okla., were visitors during the Jasper Fair last week. Thirty-odd years ago George Huntley's father owned the Fair farm west of Jasper and George was one of best known young men of the community. We understood him to say he had been away from Jasper 26 years. Anyway he had a good time here last Wednesday and Thursday greeting old-time friends.

JASPER FAIR A BIG SUCCESS

Three Days of Wonderful Weather—
Fine Farm Products and Stock
Exhibits.

The Thirtieth Annual Jasper City Fair closed last Thursday evening with practically everybody pleased. We had the finest weather imaginable, most excellent exhibits and in large quantities, a very competent and satisfactory livestock judge in Mr. Morris of Lincoln, Mo., and a fine brand of harmony and cooperation among the fair management and the public generally—a combination that is unconquerable. The daily program seemed to be especially well arranged—something interesting going on all the time.

In another column we are printing a long list of visitors to the fair from other points.

We regret that we are unable to give all the premium winners in this issue, but those that are not printed this week will be printed next week.

Quite a large group from Carthage brought a lively little band with them Wednesday afternoon and after a parade of the street mounted a platform, and led by Willis Wallingford sang a number of poplar songs. It all added interest to the daily program and the managers of the Fair were glad to see the interest taken by the Carthage folks.

Miss Sylvia Whicker of Boston, who is attending high school in Jasper, had the misfortune to lose her suitcase while attending church in Carthage Sunday night. Some clothing and some of her school books were the contents.

FALL PAINTING

Now is the time to consider that paint job that you have been putting off for two or three years. With Linseed Oil selling at less than it has for years and all other paints far below war prices, it is not economy to let your buildings rot and decay. Let me figure your job. I have just received a shipment of B. P. S. Paints and have a full line of everything to select from.
